

The INBMA shall annually sponsor one or more scholarships of lessons on any bluegrass instrument or voice (noted below) in the bluegrass style of music. The scholarship shall be open to members*, their children and grandchildren, learning a new bluegrass instrument, improving their voice and delivery, learning the bluegrass style, or wishing to attend a bluegrass workshop / music camp.

The scholarship shall be for 4 lessons (up to $40 per hour) with an option to extend lessons to a $320 limit, based upon progress reported by an instructor* approved by the INBMA scholarship committee after the initial 4 lessons have been completed. Students are encouraged to perform with a group at the end of the scholarship period. Scholarships may be extended one additional time upon re-application and review by the INBMA Scholarship Committee. The scholarship may be for a partial or full amount of the lessons. The INBMA Board reserves the right to choose the applicant(s) they feel most deserve the scholarship. Currently more than one family member can apply at a time. The limit of $320 maximum also applies to camps/workshops.

Prospective students may apply to the INBMA at any time; Scholarships will be awarded as funds are available. Application should include the following:
